

What are the methods of payment at the Universidad Católica de Avila (UCAV)?

The Institute of Spanish Language and Culture at the Universidad Católica de Avila prefers payment using either a bank cashier's check in euros or the equivalent amount in dollars or a credit card. If using a credit card (cash is also accepted), the payment must be done in person at the UCAV when the student arrives; however, fees can also be paid using a personal check. There is a surcharge of 6 euros or its dollar equivalency for personal checks. Checks should be made out to the "Universidad Católica de Avila" and sent via airmail to the attention of the "Aula de Lengua y Cultura Española" at the UCAV address listed below.

Please make copy of check sent. Although not required, we recommend certifying or registering the envelope in which the check is sent airmail. If paying in dollars, the UCAV accepts whatever exchange rate is in effect the date you acquire the bank cashier's check or write the personal check.

The UCAV also accepts bank transfers, and if you wish to use that method of payment, let us know and we can forward you the UCAV account numbers at two different banks here in Avila, Spain. Sometimes, though not always, it is more complicated to do these international bank wire transfers, so that is why we offer the options of bank cashier's checks, personal checks, or paying with a credit card in person.
